STATE PRESS.

OUR VIRGINIA CONTEMPORARIES ON THE CONVERTION AND PLATFORM.

The Debt Plank and the Wisdom of Calling the Convention Discussed.

We give below the opinions of some of our State contemporaries touching the Roanoke convention and its ac.

> AN ADMIRABLE PLATFORM. [Lynchburg Virginian.]

The position taken on the public debt question is not merely the only proper position, but it is the only possible position for the party to take in order to win at the November election.

Taken as a whole the platform is an admirable one. All of its declarations are to the purpose, and uninvolved by meaningless verbiage. On the ques-tions of labor, public education, the ab-olition of the internal-revenue system, the interests of agriculture, and the relief of the disabled ex-Confederate sol-diers and ex-Confederate soldiers widows, the declarations are commendable and unassailable. Combined they constitute the ground-work of a broad and liberal public policy upon which the party should march to an assured victory. None but the veriest political quib-blers can pick a flaw in the positions taken on any of these subjects.

The convention has done its work well. It has prepared the way for entire party harmony and organized vic-tory in advance. It only remains for the Democratic masses to rally to the principles which have become dear to Virginians through the struggles and Virginians through the struggles and trials endured in the efforts to main-tain and establish them. Let them take hope and courage from the un-bounded enthusiasm which characterized the proceedings of the convention and press forward with united purpose as men thrice armed with a righteous cause, and there can be no misgivings as to the result.

UNITED AND DETERMINED. [Lynchburg News.]

The Democracy of Virginia is united and determined. The party leaders have "the light of battle" in their eyes, and it only requires ordinary vigilance and wide-awake endeavor to secure a signal triumph over Mahone and the other enemies of Virginia's peace and prosperity.

WORTHY OF ENDORSEMENT. [Norfolk Ledger.]

The harmony which characterized the action of the Roanoke convention yesterday affords sufficient evidence that those charged with the management of the Democratic party of this State pursued the proper course when they decided to hold a convention preparatory to going into the fall campaign.

The Democratic party of the State has given utterance to its views on the various subjects of public interest, as will be seen by the platform, and while all the opinions expressed in that does ment may not exactly suit the indi vidual voter, the production is the re-sult of the assembled wisdom of the party, and as such is worthy of endorse ment by the people.

A QUASI ENDORSEMENT. [Norfolk Virginian.1

fects in the platform which may lead to apathy in the Democratic ranks, The robbers disappeared in the fields cards—that the sound announcements failed to find any of them, regarding the internal revenue and tariff revision will sober the minority of the party into acquiescence with the majority upon all the present and known points of difference between the Democracy and their opponents, the Republicans.

CALLS FOR A PATRIOTIC RESPONSE. [Norfolk Landmark.]

We have exchanged opinions, we have consulted together, we have railied round the colors, and new life has been infused into us, rank and file. The harmony of the occasion was all that could have been asked for or desired, and the temper of our people gives promise of a glorious concentration of all our forces. This is all that we de sire, for we have a reserve of 50,000 voters who remained inactive in the congressional election, but who can be reached and animated by Mr. Barbour and his functional election.

The debt question stands where both parties agreed to place it, and it is now to be hoped that there will be a patriotic response to the appeal made by Mr. Barbour for the people to pay their taxes in money and not in coupons.

SOMEWRAT DISAPPOINTED.

[Pertsmouth Times.]
Although we have acknowledged disappointment as to the debt plank in its platform and, as we have said, hoped for a different result from the convention, we still that believe the calling of the convention was a wise movement. The party now has a chart by which it cen sail and avoid the injury which would doubtless have resulted from the disconcerted action of the party leaders in the event of having no platform. Moreover the assembling of the mem-bers of the party together in common conclave will have the effect of arousing a deeper interest in the fall campaign and increase that feeling of good fellowship which is so essential to those who are engaged in a common cause.

PRACTICAL AND ARTISTIC. [Lynchburg Advance.]

We think the Democratic State Convention which assembled at Roanoke City on Thursday completed its work in a practical as well as an artistic way. The simple fact that it was only on day in session and that not a single de-bate occurred upon any proposition, or any conflict of opinion in regard to the platform, shows very clearly that the Democratic party of the State is a unit on all the leading questions of the day, and that it intends to win another glorious victory in November next over all opposition and combinations coming from whatever source they may.

Every Democrat in the State knows now precisely where to plant himself in the fight, and who his enemy is to be. Thorough organization and in the fight, and who his enemy is to be. Thorough organization and solid work is now the remaining duty to be performed by our party friends in every part of the State, and if they will attend to this important duty none of us need fear or doubt the result in November.

Now every committee to its post and every man to his duty.

and every man to his duty. ALL IS WELL.

The convention has done its work well and the platform is broad enough to hold the entire Democracy. The most important feature is, of course, the position the party has taken on the debt question, and with all the facts before us it is hard to see how the convention could have taken any other

New York, August 8.—"Down with the English flag! Hurrah for the Stars and Stripes!" shouted Thomas J. Mooney, the incendiary who tried to fire the steamer Queen as he waved his hat this morning in the Jefferson-Market Court, He had been brought there and placed among the audience to see if he could be identified by Ro-bert Sinclair, the colored steward of the steamer Guyandotte, of the Old Dominion Line, as the dynamitard who caused the explosion and injury some time ago to that vessel. Sinclair, how-ever, failed to recognize Mooney, and the letter was again returned to prison. the latter was again returned to prison.

ANEGRO HORRIBLY CRUSHED.

A Church Dedication-Track-Laying-Other Norfolk Notes, [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, August 8, 1887. The negro stevedore, Theodore But-ler, who was so terribly crushed yes-terday morning about the body by a 2,000-pound box of machinery falling on him in the hold of the Boston steam-ship Berkshire, is reported to have died ship Berksua., during the day. Methodist Episcopal opposite Centenary Methodist Episcopal church, in Mathews county opposite Hick's wharf, was formally dedicated yesterday, and nearly 200 people went down from Norfolk on the Northampton to attend the services. Persons from all sections of the county were present, and not one half the people present could get in the building

A large force is engaged to-day track-laying from the wharves near Craney island towards Suffolk on the Atlantic and Danville railroad.

Justice John T. Griffin, of the county, is quite ill at his home at Churchland.
The Government proposes to abandon St. Helera, opposite the navy-yard, as an ordnance depôt, and make it a coaling-station. A board of inspectors is now engaged in making up a report. A board of survey this morning or-dered the Philadelphia distressed schooner Elias Moore to discharge her cargo and be repaired. Several Portsmonth ministers left today on their summer vacation. Rev. R. L. McMurran, of the Presbyterian church, goes to St. Paul, Minnesota; Rev. F. F. Reese, of Trinity Episcopal church, to the Maryland mountains; Rev. W. H. Atwill, of the Methodist church, to Westmoreland county; and Rev. Dr. Owen, of the Baptist church, to the mountains of Virginia.

A fleet of ten vessels is moored at the Lambert's-Point coal-piers awaiting cargoes. During the month of July fortyfive thousand tons were shipped from these piers. The local demand is constantly increasing. Rev. Dr. W. V. Tudor, of Granby-

Street Methodist Episcopal church, left this morning for the Northern Neck, where he proposes to conduct a series of meetings for the next month.

Pay-Inspector Rufus Parks, in charge of the general store at the navy-yard, is spending a month at the Old White with his family. A company to crect saw-mills near the navy-yard costing $100,000 has been organized. The mills will have a daily capacity of 60,000 feet of sawed lumber.

EOLD TRAIN-ROBBERS.

Going Through Freight Trains with Drawn Revolvers and then Escaping.

An Indianapolis special says: A bold attempt at train-robbery was made on the Pan-Handle Line about 3 o'clock this morning. About midnight the switchmen in the Pan-Handle freightyards discovered five men robbing a car of merchandise. They attempted to cap-ture the robbers, but were compelled to throw up their hands and walk away. There was no display of remarkable ability in the speeches made during the session of the convention—nothing ability in the speeches made during the session of the convention—nothing new or important,—and with the exception that it was supposed in some quarters that an appendix would be manufactured for the Riddleberger bill, the work of the body was what was generally expected. If there are defects in the platform which may lead on its trip.

they will be found in the proposition as to the debt adjustment and the approval of the paternal government idea emails. Liver, a notorious thief, whom bodied in the Blair bill. FERRANDINI ALWAYS HAS A Perilems Postponement.

To postpone when the duty for immediate action is clear is always unwise. Especially it is owhen increasing iil bealth calls for a resort to medication. Diseases of the kidneys and hisder are often of swift growth—always of fatal tendency if not combated at the outset. We have all—even those of us who are not remarkably well instructed—heard something of the danger attending Bright's disease, clastetes, and other diseases of the kidneys or bladder. Let us one be footbardly enough to procrastinate if he perceives the ronal organs to be inactive. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are peculiarly adapted to overcome this inaction, to sumclently slimulate without exciting the kidneys and bladder. Infinitely is this direct to be preferred to the impure and nerly stimulants of commerce, which prove the bane of unwary persons with a tandency to renal troubles. They are likewise incomparable for dyspepsia, debility, fever and ague, and bilicuseness.

This property is situated in the celebrated warm-Springs Vailey, unrivalled for the beauty of its scenery and for healthfulness, and embraces innumerable springs of infinite variety of temperature and varied medicinal properties. They are the only hot springs east of the Mississippi river, and must uccessarily be the great resort of all persons living in the Atlantic States who seek permanent relief from rheumatism, gout, and sortfula.

It is no picture of fancy to say that its unutilized earth-heated mineral waters are, indeed, a stream of gold going in large part to waste down this heautiful valley, all of which can and will be changed into what nature in-
